Commitment Policy

In keeping with the requirements of the principle of mentorship, I commit myself to the following:

1. To attend all meetings scheduled by the program unless I have a reasonable purpose for absence.

2. To follow the advice and counsel of the mentor in keeping with the principles of scripture.

3. To fulfill all assignments given by the mentor both written and practical.

4. To read all books and resources assigned to me by the mentor and the program.

5. To develop a personal program of physical discipline and prayer.

6. To select two individuals to also serve as mentors.

7. To live according to the principles and precepts of scripture in my daily life in work, family, relationships, and personal integrity.

I commit to a personal responsibility for cultivating my relationship with God through the Holy Spirit through a daily Bible reading program, personal prayer time, sharing my faith with others, and a steady reading diet on spiritually enhancing resource materials.
